

Management of organizations and enterprises

Presentation

Understanding and defining the organizational principles of an SSE organization: general management principles and construction of a map of an organization's management system. Understanding the managerial specificities of SSE companies: governance in SSE, values, the SSE Good Practice Guide. Acquiring practical management support tools: management techniques, innovation in practices, quality of life at work. Conducting practical simulations: case studies, role-playing.

Recommended Prerequisite(s)

A good knowledge of the Social and Solidarity economy is required.

In brief

Number of hours : 9.0

Teaching term : Annual

Teaching activity : Lecture course

Year : Fifth year

Validation : Other

Contacts

Additional information

Class delivered by Mélanie Thuillier Fournol.