

Masters "Destination ENA" of the Institute of Political Studies

Presentation

The "Destination ENA" (Objectif ENA : OENA) Master's course provides intensive preparation for the various external exams of the École Nationale d'Administration, INET and parliamentary assemblies.

The OENA Master's course takes place in the fifth year. Admission is subject to a selection process takes place at the end of the fourth year of studies.

Objectives

Preparation is provided in the form of classes on subjects on which students will be tested in the competitive exams they intend to take: public law, economics, general knowledge, public finance, social issues, European issues, international relations, geography, ...

Between September and April, students will be assessed regularly based on oral and written tests. Between May and July, weekly written and oral practice tests are organized and each student will receive personalized corrections and feedback on tests in the main subjects.

Additional advanced classes are also provided, as well as a coaching session with a recruitment professional.
